

Stained glass from our factory is rolled into sheets approximately 8' long.

Pieces cut for stained glass shades are often less than 1" square.

A 1" piece cut from one area of this sheet of glass will not exactly match the color of a piece cut from another area. The resulting shades are individual, one-of-a-kind masterpieces, even though they are made from the same pattern utilizing the same sheet of glass.